

Without diversity we can never know the difference between right and wrong, or war and peace. Please don't allow one corporation to determine all of the information that Americans receive.